DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election with traverse of the figures 13-14a embodiment in the reply filed on 02 December 2004 is acknowledged. Applicant points out that claims 1 and 11-18 read on the elected embodiment. An action on these claims follows. It is not clear exactly what grounds the traversal is based upon. While applicant states in his remarks of the election that claims 1 through 19 are all species claims of generic claim 1 and has so constructed his application, such does not make improper the election requirement. Applicant is entitled to have a generic claim with claims directed to different species depending from such generic claim. However, such does not prohibit an election requirement. As set forth in the election requirement, if a generic claim is held to be allowable, applicant will be entitled to consideration of any properly dependent claims thereon directed to additional species. Applicant's statement in the remarks that "Applicant further recognizes that Claims 1 through 31, although reliant on the drawings and specification contained in the Application, are not species variants of Claim 1" is not exactly understood. Is applicant now saying that claims 1 through 31 are not directed to different species?

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kirkby (US patent 1,190,426).

The patent to Kirkby discloses the invention, a system for wiping, as is claimed. Kirkby discloses a wiper arm assembly (18,19), a wiper blade assembly (4) attached to the wiper arm assembly and means (1,2,3,9,11,14) for rotating and translating the wiper arm assembly to cause the blade assembly to track in a linear path (fig.1). Said means for rotating and translating includes fixed gear (9) and rotatable gear (14).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 12-18 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

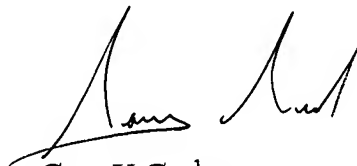

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
